Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Therday - 23 April 1963

Page 2

25X	Tained with alerting
20/	him to hearings starting possibly next week on the nuclear test han issue before the Stenois Prepareduces investigating Subcommittee. I pointed that in view of the Director's interest and the probability that he will 25X1	he called, we had requested that the Chairman permit the Agency
25X1	to have an observer sit at all of these hearings.   indicated he did not think he could handle this but will take it up further with OSI looking toward resolution.
25X1	b. Received from the draft report
25X1	of the Stennis Preparedness investigating Subcommittee on its Cuban inguiry. This is being sent to DOD also and the Subcommittee is restenting review by the Agency and DOD salely for deletion of the essential security information and are recessing action on an arrent 25X1	Y. Pollowing up on my query to stilton Alberberg of Senstor Keating's office, I met with Senstor Keating with Elsenberg present. Elsenberg had relayed my request to the Senator and I quickly went through it again indicating we would like any assistance the Senator could offer with respect to reports an 25X1	the Senator could offer with respect to reports as which would be
25X1	the hemator could offer with respect to reports an which would be necessarily considered this and in measured words
25X1	the henator could offer with respect to reports as which would be neighble. The henator carefully considered this and in measured words stated that he was sure that he had so information which was not available
_	the hemator could offer with respect to reports as which would be maintain. The monator carefully considered this and in measured words stated that he was sure that he had no information which was not available to the intelligence community. He made reference also to the
25X1 25X1 	the henator could offer with respect to reports as which would be neighbor. The senator carefully considered this and in measured words stated that he was sure that he had so information which was not available to the intelligence community. He made reference also to the he could not agree with everything in
_	the Senator could offer with respect to reports an which would be meight. The senator carefully considered this and in measured words stated that he was sure that he had no information which was not available to the intelligence community. He made reference also to the he could not agree with everything in there but that he did agree with that portion of the article which indicated
25X1 	the Senator could offer with respect to reports an which would be meight. The senator carefully considered this and in measured words stated that he was sure that he had no information which was not available to the intelligence community. He made reference also to the he could not agree with everything in there but that he did agree with that portion of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of
_	the Senator could offer with respect to reports as which would be maintain. The senator carefully considered this and in measured words stated that he was sure that he had so information which was not available to the intelligence community. He made reference also to the here but that he did agree with that portion of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of
25X1 	the Senator could offer with respect to reports an which would be meight. The senator carefully considered this and in measured words stated that he was sure that he had no information which was not available to the intelligence community. He made reference also to the he could not agree with everything in there but that he did agree with that portion of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of
25X1  25X1 I	the Senator could offer with respect to reports as which would be meight. The senator carefully considered this and in measured words stated that he was sure that he had no information which was not available to the intelligence community. He made reference also to the he could not agree with everything in there but that he did agree with that portion of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated there is affice immediately.)
25X1  	the Senator could offer with respect to reports as which would be neighble. The senator carefully considered this and is measured words stated that he was sure that he had so information which was not available to the intelligence community. He made reference also to the he could not agree with everything in there but that he did agree with that portion of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated the senator. This information was relayed to deserted Carter's office immediately.)
25X1  	the Senator could offer with respect to reports as which would be majoral. The senator carefully considered this and in measured words stated that he was sure that he had no information which was not available to the intelligence community. He made reference also to the he could not agree with everything in there but that he did agree with that portion of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated the senator. This information was relayed to the manual Carter's office immediately.)
25X1  	the Senator could offer with respect to reports as which would be senator could offer with respect to reports as which would be senator carefully considered this and in measured words stated that he was sure that he had no information which was not available to the intelligence community. He made reference also to the here but that he did agree with that portion of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated the formation was relayed to the senator. That intermation was relayed to the senator of the formation on the findent.
25X1 25X1 I 25X1	the benator could offer with respect to reports an which would be maintain. The senator carefully considered this and in measured words stated that he was sure that he had no information which was not available to the intelligence community. He made reference also to the he could not agree with everything in there but that he did agree with that portion of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated the seasor. This information was relayed to desert Carter's office immediately.)  Talked with Walter Reynolds, Staff Mirestor of Committee on localities and legislation to antablish a Joint Committee on the Endoys.
25X1 25X1 I 25X1	the Senator could offer with respect to reports an which would be senator could offer with respect to reports an which would be set of the senator carefully considered this and in measured words stated that he was sure that he had no information which was not available to the intelligence community. He made reference also to the he could not agree with everything in there but that he did agree with that portion of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated the Senator. This information was relayed to denote Carter's office immediately.)  Talked with Teltur Reynolds. Suff Tirector of Senate Several Several to Senation on the Endant.  To be sent that the Senator of the Senator on the Endant.  The sent actions on lagislation to outside a Toint Committee on the Endant.
25X1 25X1 I 25X1	the benator could offer with respect to reports an which would be maintain. The senator carefully considered this and in menaured words stated that he was sure that he had no information which was not available to the intelligence community. He made reference also to the here but that he did agree with that portion of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated there had been no substantial reduction of the article which indicated the seasor. This information was relayed to Constal Carter's office immediately.)  Talked with Walter Reynolds, Staff Mirestor of Constal Constal Carter's office immediately.)